Dear Sir:

Our Co' is ordered to the Constabulary & we want to leave. When you come down, give Eugene a set when [illegible] Campbell will give them. Send a note to Lt. C. [illegible] when we can leave your camp.

One of our Co's men is sick. Keep him down there until we get there. His name is Dunnigan

Daddy dear:

Dr. Piper was a faithful messenger and put your letter into my hands and right at his arrival. Was sorry had written message on the outside of the envelope. Dave acted like he came upstairs the two flights. Lucy and Irving came on the ferry. Saturday. Dr. Fillmore came to-day to see me. Dr. Lindsay came up on business connected with the Gunkanga, for a lark.

We are having nice weather and I know it will continue, and that all goes well. At dinner at the Tavern, I read the letter to the guests. Mr. Williams, who is a newspaper correspondent, and he raised one eyebrow and said: "Dear me, can it be possible that ... ?" Dave and Irving are both fond of ... and writes a good deal for ... Dave. Now that Jim. Took him [illegible] and the necessities, the [illegible] and I am keeping [illegible] Harris [illegible] at home, are going a little [illegible]

for some time to Mother Dearie.

We dined with [illegible] at Poillon, Miss Edwards, Mr. Howard, Mr. Bowman & Grant.

Last night Miss Yapp & I had it at the Hotel and Jim was there also, & read Mr. Chase to entertain our guests with. He said "I'm [illegible] Dearie let me [illegible]
I'll [illegible] Mr. Goodman & Jim come & [illegible] to get me to [illegible] and [illegible] ten [illegible] afterwards. We are going home [illegible] and [illegible] & Miss Yapp.
I'll [illegible] well, and Dr Bratton [illegible]
He was sung by a [illegible]. He and [illegible] are the "Faithful."

[illegible] this has been my terrible week. I'm [illegible] it.
Very warmest love to myself, and I hope [illegible]
to the dear Capt. [illegible] and to [illegible]
Many [illegible]

Dearie.

My dear Morgan,
After a pleasant ride of 1½ hours, we came to this town so called consisting of 1 house by a dry river. We had for guide the Inakleco with a stiff arm and he doesn't know the trail any further. Malindung which for here first is the mountain that we ascended the other day. We are [illegible] the edge from Amiles [illegible] we can see the long range that we saw from the [illegible] Dalapad. We [illegible] and [illegible] to the [illegible] and Talman — but we will [illegible] by Carmel [illegible] but probably by [illegible] or return to camp.

There is no use as far as we can see now [illegible] ... [illegible] us a [illegible] your [illegible]

If we don't find [illegible]

[illegible] days & send [illegible]
[illegible] you [illegible] at first [illegible]
If any thing turns up or we can on Saturday return to camp [illegible] distance we will keep on.

Dear Dr Williams.

I have been thinking on many times today. The Enemy needs you to work with him to do it to 10 o'clock tonight. I have some papers for you to look over in the "Times".
